
The depth of all roadside swales including driveway entrances and culverts under driveways shall be * inches below finished street centerline elevation unless otherwise noted

* Not applicable since all streets are curb and gutter.